50X1-HUM

1. Three hundred families of officers and NCO's attached to the Bydgoszcz garrison were quartered in a dwelling village in Gdanski Las (Gdansk Forest). Most of the houses were occupied by the families of personnel of an infantry unit quartered in a former NCO's school.
2. At the beginning of March, all the families were informed that they would be moved to Bydgoszcz as soon as housing would be available for them there. A few days later two families were moved and Soviet families took their place.
3. At the same time, a fully equipped infantry unit quartered at the NCO's school marched out toward Pila. The barracks were deserted between 12 and 15 March. The unit was the 45th Infantry Regiment, which has been disbanded; its personnel have been incorporated into various other units.
